PRODUCT DETAILS

Toorx Absolute Line High Performance Battle Rope

This thick battle rope is made for commercial use. Featuring shrink-wrapped handles for extreme durability and usability. The rope has reinforced handles to prevent the rope from fraying at the ends. Battle ropes are ideal for strengthening shoulders and forearm muscles.

Key Features:

- Shrink wrapped handle

Benefits Of The Product:

A battle rope workout makes you engage your upper and lower body. Every single muscle in your body will be stimulated with a good battle rope workout.

Battle ropes not only offer a great full body workout but are also a great alternative to cardio exercises.

There are countless wall ball exercises that anyone can perform. Training with wall balls is also a great way to train functional movements which will help you in performing daily tasks.
