PRODUCT DETAILS

TOORX OVERLOAD DIP BELT DIP-B

The Toorx Overload Dip Belt DIP-B is designed to add extra resistance to your strength training, making it ideal for weighted dips, belt squats and other bodyweight exercises. Made from durable nylon Cordura, the belt provides reliable support and comfort during demanding workouts.

The 70 cm belt features a 10 cm wide padded section for comfortable positioning around the hips, while the integrated chain with hook allows weights to be securely attached. A practical addition to any home or professional gym for progressive strength training.

Key Features:

- Durable nylon Cordura construction
