PRODUCT DETAILS

This TOORX product is ideal for users who practice sports with physical contact.

Split protective man with shell has an elastic waistband able to hold the protective shell in place, which serves to protect the delicate parts of the body from any bumps and injuries.

The use of the shell is mandatory in boxing and many martial arts activities, as a hit can also experience permanent damage.

Protective men's briefs with shell TOORX is a quality product that allows you to carry out your sporting practices with maximum safety.
